

INTERHOUSE DRAMA COMPETITION

Drama prepares student to be communicators. It strengthens literacy build self esteem , self confidence and team spirit!An inter house drama competition was conducted for primary and secondary section on 20th July, 2018.

Children of all four houses took adaptation from popular plays and sitcoms and simplified it for the school presentation. The students were exceptionally committed and put in many hours of rehearsal time, listening to feedback from their teachers. We are immensely proud of the students; their characterisation was fantastic and they performed with such charisma.

The round of applause they received from the audience spoke volumes.

All the Four Houses are to be congratulated on their sensational use of costumes, audio and stage presence.
